Dear Executive,

In response to feedback from subscribers, we are introducing two new features to BABE in 2004:

- Detailed country reports on retail banking, ATMs and payment cards in every issue – this information will be based on RBR primary research that is not available from any other source.
- An electronic subscription option in addition to the ever-popular printed version.

An independent and authoritative viewpoint

Subscribers to BABE recognise it as a unique source of in-depth analysis of key issues in the retail banking sector. It plays an important role in their market intelligence and strategic planning activities. BABE brings objective analysis and insights by experienced consultants.

Established reputation

For 20 years, BABE has reported on developments in banking and payment automation worldwide and is read by senior executives of banks, manufacturers, retailers, card organisations, CIT companies, software companies, network operators and others, in more than 20 countries.

Topics regularly covered include:

- ATMs
- internet banking
- payment systems
- EFTPOS
- new technology
- self service
- interchange fees
- plastic cards
- security & fraud

To subscribe to BABE, simply complete this form and return it to RBR by fax, post or e-mail (see overleaf).
